POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Teacher Education Program at the University of California, Santa Barbara invites applications for a pool of qualified temporary lecturers to teach various courses for upcoming openings in the 2022-23 year, including Summer 2023. Screening of applicants is ongoing and will continue as needed. The number of positions will vary from quarter to quarter and depend on the needs of the department. Positions are part-time and variable in terms of percentage time. Positions are limited to the length of the course.

The posting will remain open until March 31, 2023 to accommodate department needs. The pool will close on March 31; if you would like to continue to be considered after that time, and the pooled position is advertised again, you will need to submit a new application.

Please note: The use of a lecturer pool does not guarantee that an open position exists at the time you are applying. See the review date specified in UC Recruit to learn whether the department is currently reviewing applications for an upcoming opening. If there is no future review date specified, your application may not be considered at this time.

Anticipated positions at this time may include the following specialty areas:

- Bilingual Education
- Special Education
- Education and Justice
- Educational Technology

Instructors are expected to attend all class sessions, read, respond, and evaluate student assignments, and assign grades adhering to all department guidelines. Additionally, instructors are expected to attend all course planning meetings.

The University is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through research, teaching, and service as appropriate to the position.

Reports to Director, Teacher Education Program: Victoria Harvey.
