POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Teacher Education Program at the University of California, Santa Barbara invites applications for the position of Supervisor of Teacher Education. Screening of applicants is ongoing and will continue as needed. Open until filled.

The posting will remain open until March 31, 2023 to accommodate department needs. The pool will close on March 31; if you would like to continue to be considered after that time, and the pooled position is advertised again, you will need to submit a new application.

Please note: The use of a supervisor pool does not guarantee that an open position exists at the time you are applying. See the review date specified in UC Recruit to learn whether the department is currently reviewing applications for an upcoming opening. If there is no future review date specified, your application may not be considered at this time.

The Supervisor's responsibilities include:

- Supervises Teacher Education Program students in practicum sites in elementary or secondary public schools.
- Coordinates between UCSB coursework and practicum activities for TEP students and Cooperating Teachers.
- Provides training and support for Cooperating Teachers at the school site.
- Works in consultation with school personnel to identify classroom placements, promote growth in teaching practice and to resolve problems.
- Meets regularly with TEP students and participates in TEP faculty meetings, curriculum development activities, and program and student evaluation activities.

The University is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through research, teaching, and service as appropriate to the position.
