

California Council on Teacher Education

An Appeal to CCTE Member Institutions

The California Council on Teacher Education is requesting your financial assistance to help assure that the organization is able to maintain its usual level of activity and service throughout the current academic year. This appeal is being made because ongoing increases in hotel costs at both our Spring 2023 SPAN Conference and our Fall 2023 Fall Conference exceeded our budgeted expectations, leaving us with an unpaid balance due as well as insufficient funds to support our usual activities from now until our next membership renewal cycle in June of 2024.

We hope that voluntary contributions from our member institutions will allow us to meet current and ongoing needs this year while we recalibrate our budget planning in line with current conference costs so as to assure that next year's budget is appropriately balanced.

Member institutions are also encouraged at any time to upgrade your membership by adding additional delegates or by becoming an annual co-sponsor of CCTE. Co-sponsoring institutions are recognized at each CCTE conference and in conference programs and quarterly newsletters.

We invite you to use the form below to make whatever contribution you are able (either by a check through the mail, or on-line using the "donation" portal on the CCTE website). Thank you in advance for your support of CCTE.
