

CALIFORNIA COUNCIL ON TEACHER EDUCATION

Improving education at every level

CCTE eNews Briefs

Information for CCTE
Between Quarterly Newsletters

Volume 1, Number 3
January 1, 2021

Grace Fantaroni (Point Loma Nazarene University)
Laurie Hansen (California State University Fullerton)
Co-Editors

Stay up to date on the latest CCTE News by visiting the CCTE website.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CCTE SPRING 2021 SPAN VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

Click here to view the announcement of the SPAN virtual conference to be held March 4-5, 2021. The announcement contains a tentative schedule of the virtual sessions, registration form, and call for proposals due January 15. You can also register for the conference here.

THE ATE 2021 ANNUAL CONFERENCE IS NOW VIRTUAL

Click here for information and to register for the Association of Teacher Educators (ATE) 2021 Virtual Conference to be held February 15-17, 2021.

THE AACTE 73RD ANNUAL MEETING FEBRUARY 24-26, 2021

“Resisting Hate, Restoring Hope: Engaging in Courageous Action” is the theme for this year’s American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) virtual conference. For more information and to register click here.

CCTE DISTRIBUTES TWO JOURNALS TO MEMBERS

Click here for current CCTE membership, one benefit of which is receipt of the two peer-reviewed CCTE journals. Teacher Education Quarterly is dedicated to advancing knowledge through research on teacher education. Issues in Teacher Education is published twice yearly focusing on topics, policies, methodologies, and visions for improving the quality of teacher education.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

This page of our website features background on CCTE leaders. This month, meet Michael Cosenza, Vice-President for ATE.

JOIN CCTE ON SOCIAL MEDIA!

